

BLUE SURVEYING - CLGE Seville Declaration - The Planet is Thirsty for Concrete Action - Introduction

Vladimir Krupa (Croatia), Enrico Rispoli (Italy) and Jean-Yves Pirlot (Belgium)

Key words: Access to land; Affordable housing; Cadastre; Capacity building; Cartography; Coastal Zone Management; CPD; Curricula; Digital cadastre; Education; Engineering survey; Geoinformation/GI; Hydrography; Informal settlements; Land distribution; Land management; Legislation; Marine cadastre; Photogrammetry; Positioning; Professional practice; Real estate development; Remote sensing; Risk management; Security of tenure; Spatial planning; Valuation; Young surveyor; Blue Surveying; Water resources and threats; Sustainability

SUMMARY

With this presentation, Vladimir Krupa and or Enrico Rispoli will give a brief introduction to the theme of the session on Blue Surveying.

It is based on a presentation of the Seville Declaration as prepared by CLGE to be submitted to the colleagues gathered in Orlando, Florida, and around the World. This declaration was prepared in presence of FIG President Diane Dumashie.

BLUE SURVEYING - CLGE Seville Declaration - The Planet is Thirsty for Concrete Action - Introduction (12289)
Vladimir Krupa (Croatia), Enrico Rispoli (Italy) and Jean-Yves Pirlot (Belgium)

FIG Working Week 2023
Protecting Our World, Conquering New Frontiers
Orlando, Florida, USA, 28 May–1 June 2023